GUAM CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE REVIEW COMMISSION (CLRC)
THIRD PLENARY MEETING
THURSDAY, APRIL 06, 2023
Guam Judicial Center
via Videoconference (Zoom)

MINUTES

I. CALL TO ORDER

The Third Plenary Meeting of the Guam Criminal Law and Procedure Review Commission (CLRC) on April 06, 2023 was called to order by Chairman Jonathan R. Quan at the hour of 12:00 p.m. He noted for the record that this meeting was being recorded on Zoom and live on the Judiciary's YouTube channel. Due notice was provided for this meeting.

II. PROOF OF DUE NOTICE OF MEETING

Due publication of the five-day and 48-hour Notices of Meeting of the Guam Criminal and Procedure Review Commission, as required under the Open Government Law, were published in the Guam Daily Post. Acknowledgements are on file.

III. DETERMINATION OF QUORUM ROLL CALL

CLRC Members:

Hon. Jonathan R. Quan, Present, Hagatna

Hon. Anita A. Sukola, Present, Tamuning

Attorney William Bucky Brennan, Absent

DOC Designee Major Antone Aguon, Present, Mangilao

Chief of Police Stephen Ignacio or GPD Designee Lt. David Brantley, Absent

Attorney Joseph B. McDonald, Absent

Attorney Randy Cunliffe, Present, Hagatna

Mr. Monty McDowell, Present, Harmon

PDSC Designee Attorney John Morrison, Present, Sinajana

AG Designee Asst. AG Marianne Woloschuk, Present, Tamuning

Attorney Mike Phillips, Absent

Ms. Valerie Reyes, Absent

Attorney Christine Tenorio, Present, Tamuning

Attorney Phil Tydingco, Present, Hagatna

Ex-Officio, Non-Voting Members:

Executive Director Andrew S. Quenga, Present, Hagatna

Compiler of Laws Geraldine Cepeda, Present, Hagatna

Management Officer Valerie Cruz began the roll call. Members were present as indicated above. Chairman Quan ascertained a quorum of nine members present and concurred by Executive Director Quenga. Chairman Quan held a moment of silence to honor Department of Corrections Director Robert Camacho.

IV. DISPOSAL OF MINUTES: Ratification of January 13, 2023 First Plenary Meeting & Approval of February 09, 2023 Second Plenary Meeting

Chairman Quan requested ratification of the minutes of the January 13, 2023 First Plenary Meeting due to a technical issue with the livestreaming of the February 9, 2023 Plenary Meeting. Mr. Monty McDowell moved to approve the minutes. Hon. Anita Sukola seconded the motion. With no opposition, the motion passed.

The Minutes for the February 09, 2023 Meeting were presented for approval. Mr. Monty McDowell motioned to approve the minutes and seconded by Compiler of Laws Geraldine Cepeda. With no opposition, the motion passed.

V. OLD BUSINESS

A. Membership

Chairman Quan announced one membership change. Compiler of Laws Geri Cepeda is serving as Acting Chair of the Drug & Other Criminal Offenses (DOCO) Subcommission. Hon. Elizabeth Barrett-Anderson stepped down from her appointment due to being a member of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Commission and the statutory prohibition against serving on two commissions. However, she continues on the DOCO Subcommission as an ex-officio nonvoting member. CLRC will be advised when the Governor makes another appointment to fill her vacancy.

Chairman Quan presented an updated list of Subcommission Ex-Officio members: Hon. Elizabeth Barrett-Anderson (Drugs & Other Criminal Offenses), Attorney Kat Siguenza (Drugs & Other Criminal Offenses), Attorney Sean Brown (Crimes Relating to Property), and Attorney Brian Eggleston (Criminal Procedure).

B. CLRC Website

Executive Director Quenga announced the launch of the CLRC webpage thanks to the Court's MIS Division, specifically, Ms. Amber Toves.

C. Review of Processes for Subcommittee Review and Recommendations

Compiler of Laws Geri Cepeda summarized the Amend and Repeal Process as a process meant to guide and not prescribe. In cases where there would be a wholesale or dramatic change or wholesale repeal of a chapter or article, simply attaching the amended chapter or article as a whole rather than individual sections would be the most expedient. The COL Office and Guam Law Library stands ready to help the Subcommissions and the entire Commission in their work. Chairman Quan added that the COL said the forms were created to guide the Subcommissions, so if there were any portions that the Subcommissions did not know, it was fine to put down “was not able to locate or cannot be found.” Chairman Quan further stated that the input provided was more important than filling out every item and that the forms were just guidance and to fill in what can be filled. The Executive Director also offered his assistance to any of the Subcommissions.

VI. NEW BUSINESS

A. Member Stipend Under 5 GCA § 43104

Executive Director Quenga stated that members were requested to submit W-9 forms in order for $50 stipend payments to be made as required by 5 GCA § 43104. Executive Director Quenga stated per the statute, members serving in their official capacity as a government of Guam official or employee are not entitled to receive the stipend.

B. Presentation of First Quarter Report

Chairman Quan indicated the meeting packet includes the CLRC’s First Quarterly Report to the Governor, Speaker and Chief Justice as required by Public Law 36-119. This report was submitted on April 03, 2023 and provides information on the Subcommissions’ progress during the first quarter of 2023, which is from January 01, 2023 to March 31, 2023. Chairman Quan stated this is the first ever quarterly report, so it is limited to the reporting of the progress of each Subcommittee and significant CLRC activities. There are no conclusions or decisions in this report. Discussions about and approval of Subcommittee recommendations will be done at forthcoming plenary meetings. This report will be available on the CLRC webpage.

C. Report by Chairpersons of the Subcommittee on Crimes Against Persons and Subcommittee on Drug & Other Criminal Offenses

Chairman Quan stated that it is anticipated there will be reports from two Subcommittee chairs at each plenary meeting.

Geraldine Cepeda, acting Chairperson for the Subcommittee on Drugs and Other Criminal Offenses presented on the progress of her Subcommittee. The Acting Chair reported that the DOCO Subcommittee, under the direction of former Chair Barrett-Anderson, began their work on Chapter 90. They feel the loss of Director Robert Camacho due to his dedication to Corrections and the idea of rehabilitation. They are at the point of getting Chapter 90 ready for the Commission's voting. COL Geri Cepeda invited those interested to join their Subcommittee meetings. Chairman Quan asked how DOCO was handling the total revamp of Chapter 90 using the forms. The Acting Chair replied that DOCO will modernize and consolidate Chapter 90 and then attach it as a whole with the repeal and amend worksheets. Judge Barrett-Anderson echoed the COL's comments about Director Camacho and said that he knew that statute in and out. Judge Barrett-Anderson commended the DOC staff for their work and that the Subcommittee will be able to present the review of Chapter 90. Responding to a question from a member, on Youth Offender Sentencing, Judge Barrett-Anderson stated that it is in the DYA statute.

Chairman Quan stated that the Subcommittee on Crimes Against Persons' report will be tabled to the next meeting since Attorney McDonald was not present. He commented that all the Subcommittees are working hard and thanked everyone for their time and effort. He went on to thank the Compiler of Laws and Judge Barrett-Anderson for their presentation. At the next Plenary Meeting, the Crimes Relating to Property, Criminal Procedure, as well as the tabled Crimes Against Persons Subcommittees reports will be presented.

D. Notice of Next Meeting: Thursday, June 1, 2023, Noon (Tentative)

Chairman Quan announced that the tentative date for the next Plenary Meeting has been changed from Thursday, June 01, 2023 to Thursday, June 08, 2023 due to recent obligations for himself. Going forward, Chairman Quan indicated that he will have a physical location for the Plenary Meetings if anyone wants to attend in-person at his Courtroom in the Judicial Center. Zoom will still be available as well as broadcasting in the Atrium. There will also be live-streaming via YouTube.

VII. Communications

None.

VIII. Public Comments

None.

IX. Adjournment

Chairman Quan thanked everyone for their continued work and said that what they are doing is very important and is very much appreciated. There being no other discussion, Mr. Monty McDowell motioned to adjourn the meeting, seconded by Attorney Randy Cunliffe. There being no opposition, the Third Plenary Meeting of the CLRC was adjourned by Chairman Quan at 12:33 p.m.

Respectfully submitted this 31st day of August, 2023.

Andrew S. Quenga, Executive Director

As set out above, the minutes of the April 06, 2023 meeting were approved by the CLRC at the August 31, 2023 meeting.

Jonathan R. Quan, Magistrate Judge
Chairman

FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 2023
Guam Judicial Center
via Videoconference (Zoom)

MINUTES

I. CALL TO ORDER

The Initial Plenary Meeting of the Guam Criminal Law and Procedure Review Commission (CLRC) on January 13, 2023 was called to order by Chief Justice F. Philip Carbullido at the hour of 12:00 p.m. For the record, Chief Justice Carbullido indicated that this was the first meeting of the Commission. He then introduced Attorney Andrew Serge Quenga, who he appointed as the Executive Director of the Commission, and asked him to call the roll for this meeting.

ROLL CALL

Executive Director Quenga began by saying that under Public Law 36-119, this Commission consists of 15 appointed or designated members from: the three branches of government, the Guam Bar Association (GBA), the Office of the Attorney General (OAG), the Public Defender Services Corporation (PDSC), the Guam Police Department (GPD) and the Department of Corrections (DOC).

II. PROOF OF DUE NOTICE OF MEETING

Due publication of the five-day and 48-hour Notices of Meeting of the Guam Criminal and Procedure Review Commission, as required under the Open Government Law, were published in the Guam Pacific Daily News. Acknowledgements are on file.

III. DETERMINATION OF QUORUM

The meeting determined a quorum with a majority of Members present. Member Lt. David Brantley (Designee of GPD Chief Stephen Ignacio) joined the meeting at 12:04 pm. Member Phillip Tydingco joined the meeting at 12:07 p.m. Member Robert Camacho joined the meeting at 12:09 p.m. Member Randy Cunliffe joined the meeting at 12:11 p.m.

Chief Justice Carbullido asked that all members turn-on their video for the meeting. He then thanked Executive Director Quenga for the roll call. Due to this being the first meeting, there were no minutes to approve.

Before continuing on with the Agenda, Chief Justice recognized the presence of Senator Frank Blas, Jr., staff from Senator Dwayne San Nicolas' Office, Senator Telo Taitague, Retired Judge Elizabeth Barrett-Anderson, Retired Judge Anita Sukola, and Senator Tom Fisher. Chief Justice Carbullido thanked Senator Frank Blas, Jr. for his foresight in introducing Bill 146 which sought to create this Commission to update Titles 8 & 9 of the Guam Code Annotated. The CLRC will conduct the first complete review of Guam's Criminal Codes and Criminal Procedure Codes in nearly 50 years. Chief Justice Carbullido stated that the work of the Commission will provide the infrastructure for the modernization of Guam's Criminal Code and complement the Judiciary's separate work towards the revision of Guam's Criminal Procedural Rules. Once this Commission completes its work, a report will be prepared and sent to the Speaker of the Legislature, the Governor and Chief Justice. The Commission has a short 24-month timeline to completely review Titles 8 & 9 of the Guam Code Annotated. The Judiciary will provide the Commission all the tools necessary to get their work done on time.

Chief Justice Carbullido stated that he appointed Attorney Serge Quenga, the former Compiler of Laws as the Executive Director and Magistrate Judge Jonathan Quan, a former prosecutor and former practitioner in private practice as the Chair of the Commission, together with the Compiler of Laws, Geri Cepeda. This team from the Judiciary will provide members with the support necessary to complete their review and present recommendations to the Legislature in 24 months, hopefully before the end of the 37th Guam Legislature. The Judiciary has also provided an office for the Commission staff at the San Ramon Building.

IV. NEW BUSINESS

A. Introduction of the Commission Chairman, Executive Director and Staff

The Chief Justice thanked the Legislature and Senator Frank Blas, Jr. for entrusting the Judiciary with this very important work. He went on to introduce the chairperson of the Commission, Magistrate Judge Jonathan Quan.

Chairperson Quan thanked Chief Justice Carbullido and then addressed the members, judicial officers, senators and all in attendance. He stated that all members were sent electronic copies of the packet for today's meeting. Everything covered at the meeting is contained in the packet. He said he was grateful that all members answered the call to serve on this Commission. Moving forward with Item IV B of the Agenda, he asked the Executive Director to introduce all members and to identify the Subcommission chairpersons.

B. Introduction of Commission Members and Subcommission Chairpersons

The Executive Director introduced the 15 members of the Guam Criminal Law and Procedure Review Commission and the authorities who appointed them as shown in the presentation materials.

Executive Director Quenga indicated that under Public Law 36-119, the Chair created four Subcommissions to focus on different areas of law (Crimes Against Persons, Crimes Relating to Property, Drugs & Other Criminal Defenses, and Criminal Procedure) and the Chair named the Chairperson and members of each Subcommission as shown in the presentation materials.¹

Executive Director thanked Chief Justice Carbullido for appointing him as Executive Director of the Commission and for providing facilities at the San Ramon Building. He also thanked the Administrator of the Courts Kristina Baird, Procurement & Facilities Administrator Carl Dominguez, MIS Administrator Robert Rabago and their hard working teams. He then turned the floor back to Chairperson Quan.

Chairperson Quan stated that any member may attend any other Subcommssion meeting but may not vote, only participate. He asked that members coordinate with the chairperson of that ¹ During the meeting, the Executive Director misspoke on the Chair of the Subcommission on Crimes Relating to Property. The presentation slides named the correct Chair. Corrections were noted to the members concerned after the meeting.

Subcommission. Meeting dates and times will be posted on the forthcoming Commission website being developed. He stated that Chief Justice and himself welcome all members to the Commission. There being no questions thus far, Chairperson Quan moved on to agenda item IV C.

C. Discussion of Statutory Mandates, Goals and Objectives of the Commission

Chairperson Quan informed the attendees of the following:

Duties of the CLRC: Public Law 36-119 mandates that the CLRC review the laws that address the criminal laws and criminal procedures of Guam and recommend enactments, amendments, and repeals to I Liheslaturan Guahan. Specifically, the CLRC shall conduct a comprehensive and systematic review of Guam laws, including the Guam Criminal and Correctional Code codified in Title 9 and the Guam Criminal Procedure Code codified in Title 8 of the Guam Code Annotated (GCA), and other provisions in the statutory code and session laws of Guam related to criminal law or procedure. Chairperson Quan stated that in this statutory mandated review, the CLRC shall prioritize work on Title 9 first and at the conclusion of its review, the CLRC shall submit comprehensive criminal code reform recommendations to the Chief Justice, I Maga'hagan Guahan, and the Speaker of I Liheslaturan Guahan. Thereafter, the CLRC shall, subject to additional appropriations, conduct periodic reviews of Guam's criminal laws, but not less than every five years.

Reporting Requirements: Quarterly progress reports shall be submitted to the Chief Justice, I Maga'hagan Guahan, and the Speaker of I Liheslaturan Guahan. Reports are to include comprehensive criminal code reform recommendations and proposed legislation for the revision of Title 8 and Title 9 of the GCA.

D. Presentation of the Draft Workplan

Executive Director Quenga stated that under the draft workplan, Subcommissions will be expected to meet and timely submit progress reports and recommendations to the Plenary Commission. Subcommissions may hold virtual or in-person meetings. A CLRC website will be developed where information will be posted on updates and schedule of meetings. The packets provided for the meeting today include Public Law 36-119, GCA Title 8 & 9, Commission roster and Subcommission roster, the draft workplan, proposed dates for 2023 and today's Powerpoint slide presentation.

Executive Director Quenga went on further to explain the CLRC Subcommission Assignments with the name of the chairperson, members and title and chapter for review. The forums are included in the draft workplan for a more thorough review. Each Subcommission will focus on an area of crime and will be provided an electronic version of the template for recommended changes, if any, and also the quarterly report template. For the review process, there will be three phases: Phase 1 – First Pass (Initial Review); Phase 2 – Second Pass (Proposed Amendments); Phase 3 – Plenary Commission Review. A Final Report will be submitted by the Plenary Commission after being voted on.

E. Tentative Meeting Dates for 2023

Compiler of Laws Geri Cepeda went over the tentative meeting dates scheduled for 2023 which are: February 9, April 6, June 1, August 3, October 5 and December 7.

V. Notice of Next Meeting (Thursday, February 9, 2023) Communications

Chairperson Quan asked that the members review the packets and to email or call him, the Executive Director or the Compiler of Laws for any clarification on this discussion. He also said that next week the chairs of the Subcommissions will be contacted and will provide more information on meetings and materials needed for review. The next CLRC Plenary Commission meeting will be on Thursday, February 9, 2023 as 12:00 p.m.

VI. Public Comment

Chairperson Quan asked if there were any public comments. There being none, he turned over the floor to the Chief Justice.

VII. Adjournment

In closing, the Chief Justice commented that there is a tremendous amount of work to be done and was extremely pleased with the representatives appointed by the Governor, Speaker and himself in reference to the knowledge, expertise and background. He offered to everyone that this task is possible within two years, although tedious. He asked the Executive Director to come up with statutes recently reviewed by other jurisdictions. He thanked everyone for stepping up to the plate and agreeing to participate in this undertaking which hasn't happened in over 50 years.

Chief Justice Carbullido gave Senator Frank Blas, Jr. the opportunity to give his closing comments. Senator Blas said he looked forward in the Legislature to be able to look at the recommendations to see how to improve the statutes in both the procedures and crimes. He thanked everyone and said the subject matter experts are there.

There being no other discussion, the Initial Plenary Commission Meeting of the CLRC was adjourned by Chief Justice Carbullido at 12:45 p.m.

Respectfully submitted this 9th day of February, 2023.

Andrew S. Quenga, Executive Director

As set out above, the minutes of the January 13, 2023 meeting were approved by the Commission at the February 9, 2023 meeting and ratified at the April 6, 2023 meeting.

Clerk of Court Sophia Diaz, Superior Court of Guam

GPD - Manny Chong

II. PROOF OF DUE NOTICE OF MEETING

Due publication of the five-day and 48-hour Notices of Meeting of the Guam Criminal and Procedure Review Commission, as required under the Open Government Law, were published in the Guam Pacific Daily News. Acknowledgements are on file.

III. DETERMINATION OF QUORUM

Management Officer Valerie Cruz indicated that there were 10 commission members present during the roll call. Chairman Quan ascertained that there was a quorum and that commission business could be conducted. Executive Director Andrew Quenga concurred. Chairman Quan then recognized the presence of Chief Justice Robert J. Torres, Senator Frank Blas, Jr., Clerk of Court Hannah Arroyo, Clerk of Court Sophia Diaz, and other court members and staff.

IV. READING AND DISPOSAL OF MINUTES: January 13, 2023 First Plenary Meeting

Mr. Monty McDowell moved to approve the January 13, 2023 First Plenary Meeting Minutes, as written. Attorney Randy Cunliffe seconded the motion. Chairman Quan asked those in favor to say aye and those oppose, nay. With no opposition, the motion passed and the Minutes were approved.

V. NEW BUSINESS

A. Subcommission Chairs and Membership

Executive Director Quenga stated that there are four (4) Subcommissions, which are: Crimes Against Persons, Drug & Other Criminal Offenses, Crimes Relating to Property, and Criminal Procedure. Executive Director Quenga noted that at the last meeting, he misspoke and misidentified one of the Subcommission chairs. It has since been corrected as seen on the slide being presented. He also noted that Attorney Christine Tenorio is now with the Crimes Against Persons Subcommittee and Compiler of Laws Geri Cepeda is now with the Drug & Other Criminal Offenses Subcommittee. Executive Director Quenga reported that Judge Barrett-Anderson will be having her first Subcommittee meeting next Monday (2/13/23) at the San Ramon Building conference room.

B. Authorization Process for Appointment of Subcommittee Ex-Officio Members

Chairman Quan stated that due to requests being received by Subcommittee chairs to enlist the support of other attorneys to add additional expertise, a process has been developed and implemented to invite the support, expertise and assistance from non-members who are local attorneys or community members interested in the review of our criminal code. Chairpersons of Subcommittees will decide if additional support is needed and will request Chairman Quan and Executive Director Quenga who will in turn appoint the additional support as Ex-Officio, Non-voting Subcommittee members. Such appointees will serve in an advisory non-voting capacity. These limited appointments are based on the authority of the Commission under Title 1 GCA Section 25.03(a2) and Title 1 Section 25.05. Chairman Quan continued to say that at the request of Judge Elizabeth Barrett-Anderson, Chair of the Drug & Other Criminal Offenses Subcommittee, he and Executive Director Quenga have appointed Attorney Kat Fokas Siguenza to the Drug & Other Criminal Offenses Subcommittee as an Ex-Officio, Non-voting member. Chairman Quan thanked Attorney Siguenza for lending her expertise and efforts to Judge Barrett-Anderson's Subcommittee and to this endeavor. Chairman Quan then asked if there were any questions regarding the discussion. There being no questions, Chairman Quan went on to Item V C on the Agenda.

C. Process for Subcommittee Review and Recommendations for Non-action, Amendment and Repeal

Chairman Quan reported that at the last meeting, Phase 1 and Phase 2 of the Review Process in the Draft Work Plan were briefly discussed. They were included in the last meeting's packet and also included in today's meeting packet. He went over Phase 1 by saying that a Subcommittee will review statutes and determine initially whether no change to the law is recommended, or if close scrutiny is necessary to determine if an amendment or repeal will be recommended. The two Processes outlined in the packet will be used to determine this. Each Process first provides a summary of steps to be taken and a worksheet. Completed worksheets will track and document the work of each Subcommittee, and will serve as the basis for the quarterly reports due to the Governor, the Speaker and the Chief Justice, and ultimately, for the final report and recommendation due to the Legislature in two years. Should there be any questions on the Processes, members are encouraged to discuss issues with any of the Subcommittee chairpersons. Chairman Quan stated that the Commission does want the Subcommissions to operate autonomously using the processes and guidelines as assigned chapters and statutes are reviewed. Chairman Quan further explained that the process has been made to be as simple as possible. After a statute has been reviewed by a Subcommittee, there are three choices to be made: 1) no change; 2) amendment; 3) repeal. Subcommissions will use the worksheets provided to make recommendations. The information requested in the worksheets are necessary to justify to Island leadership and for history as to why the recommendation was made. Chairman Quan invited everyone to open their packets to the Amend worksheet and to follow along as the Compiler of Laws Geri Cepeda went over a sample worksheet to amend a statute.

Compiler of Laws Geri Cepeda presented some Sources for Researching intended to assist the members in their work: Model Penal Code (pdf); the Guam Law Library which has the 1977 Criminal and Correctional Code, Drafts of the Model Penal Code, New Jersey Criminal Code and Massachusetts Criminal Code; and the Guam Law Revision Commission Recommendations (May 1975 Staff Draft). She continued by saying that there are also Online Resources such as the Massachusetts General Laws, the New Jersey General and Permanent Statutes, the Hawaii Penal Code and the Washington, D.C. Introduced bill - Revised Criminal Code Act of 2021. The Compiler of Laws explained the difference between the Proposed Statutory Amendment Worksheet and the Proposed Statutory Repeal Worksheet. She then went through the steps for a mock worksheet on the process for a Proposed Statutory Amendment. The Compiler of Laws ended her discussion and turned the floor back to Chairman Quan. Chairman Quan thanked the Compiler of Laws and stated that all the worksheets/documents will be compiled as part of the Plenary Commission's submission to the Legislature, Governor, and Chief Justice, and at the end of the 2-year process.

D. Proposed Subcommittee Assignments and Timelines

Executive Director Quenga started by going through the Subcommittee chapter assignments. The Subcommittee chairpersons were provided with a list of proposed preliminary chapter assignments for respective Subcommissions. The chapters will be provided to members at the upcoming Subcommittee working session meetings. Chapters will be added as Commission staff continues its review of the entire Guam Code Annotated for felonies and misdemeanors. Executive Director Quenga informed the members that the priority mandated by the Legislature requires the Commission to focus on first Title 9 & then Title 8, and then other statutes scattered throughout the Code. Executive Director Quenga then continued on to Item V E on the Agenda.

E. Commission Reporting Requirements

Executive Director Quenga stated that part of Item V D on the Agenda is included in the discussion on Item V E, which is the Subcommission Reports and Quarterly Reports (2023) due dates. He went on to explain that Subcommission Reports will be used as the basis for the Quarterly Reports. A report template was included in the packet for the first meeting and today's meeting as well. Quarterly Reports are due to the Chief Justice, Governor and Speaker on the dates for 2023 indicated on the slide as follows:

- Subcommission Report – March 17
- 1st Quarterly Report (Commission) – March 31
- Subcommission Report – June 16
- 2nd Quarterly Report (Commission) – June 30
- Subcommission Report – September 15
- 3rd Quarterly Report (Commission) – September 29
- Subcommission Report – December 15
- 4th Quarterly Report (Commission) – December 29

Under Commission Law, the Quarterly Reports will summarize the Commission's activities during the prior quarter, which is why the Subcommission Reports are needed two weeks before the Quarterly Reports are due. Also to be noted are that all the Subcommission Reports and Quarterly Reports will be posted on the Commission's website, which is currently being created in-house by the Judiciary's MIS team. Executive Director Quenga said that it is the Commission's full intent to be as transparent as possible, over and above what is required by the Open Government Law. All documents that are sent to and by the Plenary Commission will be accessible and all Commission Plenary Meetings are open to the public. The Guam Bar and the public at large are welcome to review the Commission's work. All comments submitted to the Commission will be considered. The Executive Director then turned the floor over to Chairman Quan. The Chairman asked if there were any questions on the Reporting Requirements? There being none, the meeting continued on to Item V F of the Agenda.

F. Proposed Timelines and Proposed 2023 Meeting Schedules

Chairman Quan began on Item V F of the Agenda by saying that the tentative schedule outlines the Commissions's upcoming Plenary Meetings and is subject to change. They are as follows:

- | | |
|------------------------|----------|
| Third Plenary Meeting | April 6 |
| Fourth Plenary Meeting | June 1 |
| Fifth Plenary Meeting | August 3 |

Sixth Plenary Meeting	October 5
Seventh Plenary Meeting	December 7

Subcommission chairs have been empowered with broad authority and autonomy in reference to the operations of their Subcommissions. Subcommission working meetings are left up to the discretion of the chairs. Requests for Ex-Officio appointments are left up to the Subcommission chairs as well. Chairman Quan informed the members that the Commission and the Judiciary will make conference rooms available for in-person meetings and will also have the ability to conduct fully virtual or hybrid meetings for the Subcommissions. Please contact Valerie Cruz (Management Officer) or Executive Director Quenga with as much advance notice as possible so that conference rooms can be reserved or virtual/hybrid meetings can be set-up.

G. Notice of Next Meeting (April 6, 2023)

Chairman Quan informed members that the next Plenary Meeting is scheduled for Thursday, April 6, 2023, likely at 12 noon by Zoom. It is proposed that the first Subcommission Reports will be presented by 1) the Subcommission for Crimes Against Persons and 2) the Subcommission for Drugs & Other Criminal Offenses.

VI. Communications

None.

VII. Public Comment

None.

VIII. Adjournment

There being no other discussion, Mr. Monty McDowell moved that the meeting be adjourned. It was seconded by Attorney Randy Cunliffe. The Second Plenary Meeting of the CLRC was adjourned by Chairman Quan at 12:45 p.m.

Respectfully submitted this 6th day of April, 2023.

Andrew S. Quenga, Executive Director

As set out above, the minutes of the February 09, 2023 meeting were approved by the Commission at the April 06, 2023 meeting.

GUAM CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE REVIEW COMMISSION
2023 FIRST QUARTER REPORT

PREFACE

The Guam Criminal Law and Procedure Review Commission (CLRC or Commission) submits its inaugural quarterly report summarizing its activities as required by 1 GCA § 25.07(a). Because the CLRC began operations in January of 2023, quarterly reports are based on the calendar year, rather than the fiscal year. This first quarter report summarizes activities from January 1, 2023 through March 31, 2023.

CLRC STATUTORY AUTHORITY

The CLRC was created by I Liheslaturan Guahan in Public Law 36-119 (enacted Nov. 9, 2022) to conduct the first complete review of Guam’s Criminal Codes of Guam and Criminal Procedure Codes since their creation by the 13th Guam Legislature in 1976. Under P.L. 36-119, the CLRC exists as a division of the Supreme Court of Guam and receives administrative support from the Judiciary of Guam. Under P.L. 36-119, the Commission is composed of 15 members representing the three branches of government, the Guam Bar Association (to include attorneys with prosecutorial and criminal defense experience), full-time and retired judicial officers, directors of government criminal justice and public safety agencies, and private individuals from community-based and public interest organizations relating to the criminal justice system. It is chaired by Superior Court Magistrate Judge Jonathan R. Quan and administered by a full-time Executive Director and one staffer. The Chairman and Executive Director have appointed three ex-officio, non-voting (auxiliary) members to assist in review.

Review by Commission members and staff will include an intensive, section-by-section review of all chapters in Titles 8 and 9, as well as chapters of other Titles that contain substantive criminal statutes. The CLRC has a 24-month timeline to conduct its review and submit its final report and recommendations.

CLRC STAFF AND MEMBERS

Governor’s Appointees	Hon. Anita A. Sukola; Ms. Valerie Reyes ¹
Speaker’s Appointees	Attorneys Phillip Tydingco; Michael Phillips; Christine Tenorio
Chief Justice’s Appointees	Hon. Jonathan R. Quan; Attorney F. Randall Cunliffe; Mr. Monty McDowell
Guam Bar President Appointees	Attorneys Joseph B. McDonald; William B. Brennan
Statutory Members	Attorney General of Guam; Chief of Police; Director of Corrections; Executive Director of Public Defender Service Corp.
Compiler of Laws	Geraldine Cepeda
Staff	Andrew Serge Quenga, Executive Director; Valerie Cruz, Management Officer
Ex-officio (auxilliary)	Hon. Elizabeth Barrett-Anderson; Attorneys Kat Siguenza, Sean Brown, Brian Eggleston

¹ Hon. Elizabeth Barrett-Anderson stepped down as an appointed member due to her prior obligations to the Criminal Injuries Compensation Commission. However, Judge Barrett-Anderson continues to contribute as a non-voting, ex-officio (auxiliary) member.

SIGNIFICANT CLRC ACTIVITIES JANUARY – MARCH 2023

Under the direction of Chairman Quan, four Subcommissions (Crimes Against Persons, Crimes Relating to Property, Drug & Other Criminal Offenses, and Criminal Procedure) were created and members of the CLRC were assigned to each Subcommission. At the CLRC’s first plenary meeting, a Work Plan was presented which outlined the approach to the review of statutes for consideration of amendments, repeals or no changes. Worksheets for amendments and repeals were disseminated and chapters of Title 9 Guam Code Annotated were assigned.

Review of statutes will be done in three phases. In Phase 1, Subcommissions will perform a first pass in review of existing laws and recommend changes. In this Phase 1, PL 36-119 contemplates that members will base their review of Guam criminal statutes on the Model Penal Code and U.S. jurisdictions with recently reformed or revised criminal codes such as Hawaii and the District of Columbia where recent revisions have been done. Commission staff has provided members with copies of relevant sections of laws from those authorities. In Phase 2, if a Subcommission decides to amend a statute, it will do a deeper dive for closer and more critical scrutiny of suggested changes and finalize recommended amendments. In Phase 3, Subcommissions will present their recommendations to the Plenary Commission. All members of the Plenary Commission will have the opportunity to provide comments and suggestions. The Plenary Commission will vote to accept changes or request further review.

The Commission reports the following timeline of significant events during the first quarter of 2023:

Criminal Law and Procedure Review Commission

Criminal Law and Procedure Review Commission

CREATION AND MANDATES

The Guam Criminal Law and Procedure Review Commission (the "Commission") was created by Liheslaturan Guåhan in Public Law 36-119 (enacted Nov. 9, 2022) to conduct the first complete review of Guam's Criminal Codes of Guam and Criminal Procedure Codes since their creation by the 13th Guam Legislature in 1976. Under P.L. 36-119, the Commission exists as a division of the Supreme Court of Guam and receives administrative support from the Judiciary of Guam. The Commission is composed of 15 members representing the three branches of government, the Guam Bar Association (to include attorneys with prosecutorial and criminal defense experience), full-time and retired judicial officers, directors of government criminal justice and public safety agencies, and private individuals from community-based and public interest organizations relating to the criminal justice system. The Commission is Chaired by Superior Court Magistrate Judge Jonathan R. Quan and administered by a full-time Executive Director and one staffer.

Under its enabling statute, the Commission will conduct a comprehensive and systematic review of the Criminal and Correctional Code in Title 9 and the Criminal Procedure Code in Title 8 of the Guam Code Annotated ("GCA") as well as criminal statutes throughout the GCA. Following its review, the Commission will recommend enactments, amendments, and repeals to Liheslaturan Guåhan.
