Leevin T. Camacho (Attorney)	Mr. Camacho attended the National Conference of Bar Examiners Standard Setting Study (NextGen Exam). This event is by invitation only. Mr. Camacho was nominated by the Supreme Court of Guam to be a panelist and selected among hundreds of nominees nationwide based on his work experience and background. Guam will be among the first to administer this new exam and attending this study will allow Mr. Camacho to collaborate with legal professionals, educators and testing experts to establish fair and effective competency benchmarks for attorneys. Engaging in this process will also allow him to stay ahead of anticipated changes and provide valuable guidance to prospective test-takers. Given his role in pioneering the NextGen Bar Exam, participation in this study is essential.	6/17/2025
Christian F. Spotanski (Attorney)	Mr. Spotanski attended the National Conference of Bar Examiners Standard Setting Study (NextGen Exam). This event is by invitation only. Mr. Spotanski was nominated by the Supreme Court of Guam to be a panelist and selected among hundreds of nominees nationwide based on his work experience and background. As Guam is among the first jurisdictions to implement the Next Gen Bar Exam, Mr. Spotanski's participation in this study will provide valuable insights into the exam and its implications for future applicants. This opportunity allows Mr. Spotanski to engage directly with key stakeholders, ensuring that our jurisdiction remains prepared for this significant transition in legal licensure.	6/17/2025

Gabrielle A. Bautista (Social Services Supervisor I, Division of Children's Wellness, Bureau of Social Services Administration	Ms. Bautista attended the 2025 RISE Conference in Kissimmee, Florida. As a Social Services Supervisor, she learned valuable information that will help the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Service Administration's Federal Grant Project and the Judiciary. This information will assist those in treatment court, especially families involved with Child Protective Services.	7/2/2025
Tyler Scott (Attorney)	Mr. Scott attended the ALL RISE Practitioner training. As a treatment court professional, his training needs are to better understand how to advocate for justice-involved veterans struggling with addiction in a way that supports both their recovery and their legal rights. He wants to learn more about effective treatment options that are responsive to the unique experiences of veterans. In addition, he is also interested in improving how he identifies veterans who would benefit from the program and how to collaborate more effectively with VA providers, probation, and other team members. Additional training on ethical issues specific to Veterans Treatment Court and strategies for working with clients who have co-occurring mental health needs would help him better serve our veteran community here on Guam.	11/5/2025
